

Hallowed be your name.

Wednesday 21st July, 2021 – High over all the earth

GOD IS HIGH AND
LIFTED UP. HE LIVES
FOREVER. HIS NAME IS HOLY.

HE SAYS, "I LIVE IN A HIGH AND HOLY PLACE, BUT I ALSO
LIVE WITH PEOPLE
WHO ARE HUMBLE AND SORRY FOR THEIR SINS.

I WILL GIVE NEW LIFE TO THOSE WHO ARE HUMBLE IN SPIRIT. I WILL GIVE NEW LIFE TO THOSE
WHO ARE SORRY
FOR THEIR SINS".

IS 57: 15

Background.

Hallowed be your name is a simple call to prayer birthed from a desire to see the Name of the Lord God Almighty honoured and hallowed across the British Isles. The focus is on His Name and all that He is. The scope is the British Isles and all the people, transcending national and political boundaries and demarcations. The call is from and to the grass roots body of believers across our islands to come aside together, to share, pray, worship, gathering unto Him and in His Name. Throughout 2021 we are holding a prayer gathering on 21st day of each month.

21st July 2021.

On 21st June we spent time worshipping and speaking blessings over different places near to us. In the evening we were able to share some of those via words, images and videos captured during the day and we all joined our prayers together for those areas.

On 21st July we are continuing to do this and cover more of our beautiful islands, hills and waterways. And we want to try and ensure we include every nation of the British Isles.

We invite you to walk and pray in some significant place in your area, some vantage point e.g. a mountain or hilltop, or waterway or coastland. Pray over the land and proclaim the Name of the Lord, read scripture, speak blessings, wave flags, blow the shofar etc. Pray over neighbouring counties, towns or even nations if you are close enough to a border.

Please take some photos or even short video clips and send them to us, telling us where you are and what can be seen and share any words or scriptures you may receive. Also identify one key issue for prayer that we can pray into together; maybe a "mountain", such as pride, poverty, unbelief, etc to shift in your area and one hope or word the Lord has for the place.

You could do this on the 21st July or some time before if that is more convenient.

The earlier we can gather the photos or videos the easier it will be for us to collate and use them.

7.00pm – 9.30pm.

Evening prayer call via zoom.

We will bring these together in an evening zoom prayer call so we can see these different places and join our prayers with yours. We will show the images and you can share some short points about the place and name the one area or issue that you would like us to pray into with you for your area. Just 2 -3 minutes and then we can pray with you.

Do join us if you can for as long as you are able. Please share the invitation to join the evening with others.

Send photos or videos to steve@tulips.org.uk

The Zoom link for the evening meeting will be posted on the day on hbyn.info

Asking for Streams of Living Water to flow across the British Isles.

¹⁶ “It is I, Jesus, who sent my angel to you with this testimony for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star.”

¹⁷ The Spirit and the bride say, “Come.”

And let everyone who hears say, “Come.”

And let everyone who is thirsty come.

Let anyone who wishes take the water of life as a gift.

Amen!

Revelation 22 v 18 to end.

The Beatitudes (from Matthew 5)

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. ² Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

³ “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

⁴ “Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

⁵ “Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

⁶ “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

⁷ “Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

⁸ “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

⁹ “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

¹⁰ “Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

¹¹ “Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. ¹² Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

The Beatitudes of Revelation

The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants what must soon take place; he made it known by sending his angel to his servant John, ² who testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to all that he saw.

- Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of the prophecy, and blessed are those who hear and who keep what is written in it; for the time is near. 1: 3
- And I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Write this: Blessed are the dead who from now on die in the Lord.” “Yes,” says the Spirit, “they will rest from their labours, for their deeds follow them.” 14: 13
- (“See, I am coming like a thief! Blessed is the one who stays awake and is clothed, not going about naked and exposed to shame.”) 16:15
- And the angel said to me, “Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.” And he said to me, “These are true words of God.” 19: 9
- Blessed and holy are those who share in the first resurrection. Over these the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and they will reign with him a thousand years. 20:6
- “See, I am coming soon! Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book.” 22:7
- Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they will have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city by the gates. 22:14
